

LIFE INSURANCE

TERM OR PERMANENT

Term life insurance provides temporary protection for a set period of time. Permanent life insurance provides permanent protection and involves an internal savings component. The best choice for you depends on a variety of factors. This decision tree is designed to help you select the best path; an experienced life insurance professional can help you decide.

